not year round by close to it , they come in waves , they are thick for 2 weeks and then gone for one then back again , it is crazy , I think the temp and rain fall has something to do with it , back in the woods is a mayhall tree (spell check that one) , it has these little white flowers on them that people make jam and such out of , the humming birds put on a show around it -----the GAMO ...
